HISTORIC SOLDIERS WEEKEND

SPONSORED BY:

MAIN STREET BURLINGTON

TAKE A WALK THROUGH HISTORY!

This is a historical encampment and display, free admission to the public. This will be an overnight troop encampment event, covering the Riverfront area.

Open to the public from 10-5 Saturday, October 30th and from 10-3 Sunday, October 31st. (Rain or Shine)

Be prepared to witness the life of a typical soldier from the French and Indian War through modern times. There will be re-enactment groups from all periods of history and even a few famous historical figures such as Molly Pitcher, "Gettysburg's Official" General George Meade and General Robert E. Lee, plus period equipment, uniforms and military vehicles depicting BOTH sides of the wars our soldiers have fought in. There will also be an aircraft display from the AIR VICTORY MUSEUM, and WWII veteran guest speakers.

Please come down to Historic City of Burlington, peruse our downtown shops and visit the Promenade area of the Riverfront, where you will find history has come to life for the weekend.
