Burlington City, NJ
October 29th & 30th, 2005

"Take a walk through history"

www.historicsoldiersweekend.com

Historic Soldiers Weekend is a historical encampment, featuring re-enactors portraying soldiers and civilians from every American conflict, spanning from the French and Indian War to the Vietnam War. In some instances, both sides of the conflicts are represented, such as the Revolutionary War Loyalists and "Redcoats", Civil War Confederate units, and even WWII German Infantry units. The re-enactment units will set up their camps and "dig in" for the weekend on Historic Burlington City's Riverfront Promenade.

The weekend includes: Many guest speakers, authors & book signings, WWII veterans, living history displays of historic cooking, drilling, weapons demonstrations, and live music from The 2nd South Carolina String Band (from the movie Gods and Generals).

Please come to the Historic Soldiers Weekend, where you can take a walk through history.
