

Photos by DOUGLAS M. BOVITT/Courier-Post

Civil War re-enactors fire a mountain howitzer cannon during Historic Soldiers Weekend in Burlington City.

Soldiers Weekend concludes

America's key conflicts re-enacted

By WILFORD S. SHAMLIN
Courier-Post Staff

BURLINGTON CITY

A grassy promenade along the Delaware River transformed into a military encampment Sunday for the second and final

Danny Tallo, 9, of Lumberton holds a machine pistol. Watching is Robert Petner, who re-enacts a

WEBEXTRA

■ To see more photos, visit courierpostonline.com/galleries

For blacks in the Civil War, the whole quest was for freedom."

Liudas Sliazis, 70, of Freehold, impersonated a Russian soldier in the 193rd Rifle Division for the Red Army. He said that sacrifices made by Russia, which was attacked by Nazi Germany in 1939, ultimately helped the United States and its